InspectorNotes

What exactly is going on here?

- Developer is trying to obfuscate things
 - Challenge accepted!
- “type” and “room” are 16-bytes of hex
 - MD5?
- “data” is something that’s been Base64 encoded
 - Decoding returned mostly garbage
 - Contained the string “Salted”
 - Probably encrypted

Pavel Durov, the Russian-born entrepreneur who founded the online communications tool Telegram, was charged on Wednesday in France with a wide range of crimes for failing to prevent illicit activity on the app, and barred from leaving the country.

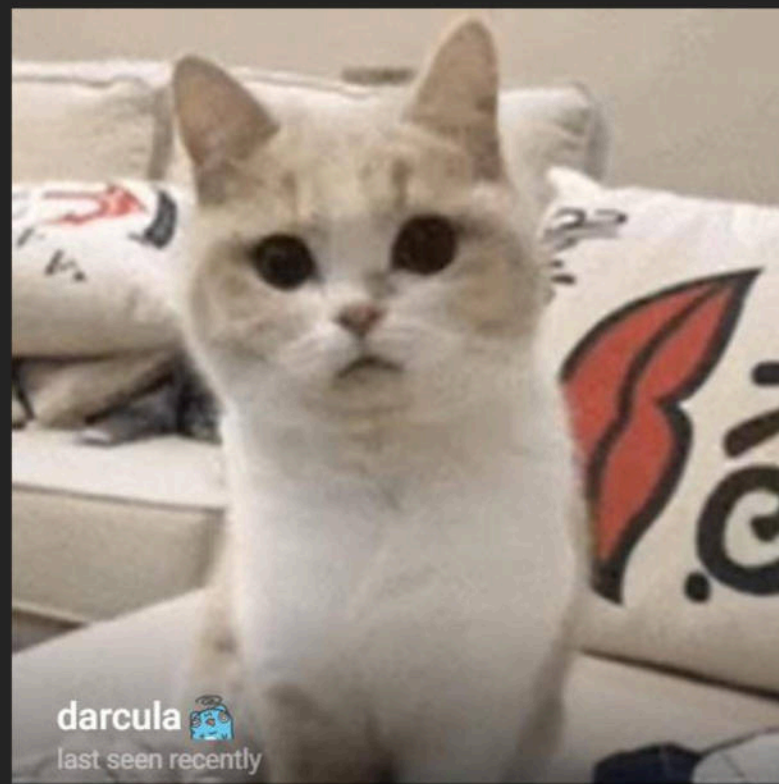

His indictment was a rare move by legal authorities to hold a top technology executive personally liable for the behavior of users on a major messaging platform, escalating the debate over the role of tech companies in online speech, privacy and security and the limits of their responsibility.

Mr. Durov, 39, was detained by the French authorities on Saturday after a flight from Azerbaijan. He was charged on Wednesday with complicity in managing an online platform to enable illegal transactions by an organized group, which could lead to a sentence of up to 10 years in prison.

He was also charged with complicity in crimes such as enabling the distribution of child sexual abuse material, drug trafficking and synchrony

javascript cleaner & deobfuscator (primarily javascript-obfuscator/deobfuscator.js)

API reference is available at <https://relative.github.io/synchrony>

Usage note

Artifacts produced by old versions of javascript-obfuscator will likely not deobfuscate correctly, please DO NOT open an issue. Try previous versions of synchrony or another deobfuscator.

There is no user configuration as of yet, the string decoder works automatically

Usage

Use the latest version at <https://deobfuscate.relative.in> or install from NPM

1. Install deobfuscator globally using yarn/npm npm install --global deobfuscator # alternatively, yarn global add deobfuscator, pnpm install

1.1. Or Install From Git
npm install --global relative/synchrony# alternatively, yarn global add relative/syn

2. Get an obfuscated file

Darcula's infrastructure

- All centralized infrastructure is behind Cloudflare
 - Backdoor won't work
- We know the license server is a gold mine
 - Database of all activations
 - Includes IPs
 - Maybe more?
- Netcraft blogged about Darcula in March 2024
 - Simultaneous takedown of Darcula's magic-cat.net domain
 - Back up and running within hours

Good time to inform the police

- Compiled a 24-page report and shared with
 - Norwegian National Cybercrime Centre (NC3)
 - The National Authority for Investigation and Prosecution of Economic and Environmental Crime (Økokrim)
 - Europol
 - FBI
- Held meetings with Europol in The Hague, twice

Gotcha!
